A MEDIEVAL ISLAMIC CITY RECONSIDERED: AN INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACH TO SAMARRA (OXFORD STUDIES IN ISLAMIC ART V.14)

Oxford University Press, 2002. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 1st Edition. 206 pages : illustrations, maps, plans ; 26 cm. black cloth. 'This book represents the first sustained attempt to understand Islamic urbanism and court life from an interdisciplinary approach. Samarra, the last great example of early Islamic city building in Iraq, was the capital of the Abbasid caliphate and the center of court culture during the second half of the ninth century. Although archaeologists and art historians have worked on the site extensively, the bounty of numismatic, literary, and historical evidence has hardly been tapped. Since much of this evidence overlaps, Samarra offers unique insights into the character of city building, administration, military history, court life (ritual, court poetry), and imperial ideology throughout this period. -- Publisher description.'
