Sharing Love, an apple tree that bears red delicious apples, and his friend, Angel, share a unique friendship. Every time Sharing Love has a problem, he calls Angel, and she comes to help him. In return, Sharing Love provides Angel with shelter and wonderful apples to eat. Despite their differences, they are the best of friends. Life is not easy, however, and Sharing Love and Angel must find the strength to help each other-and themselves-through hard and tragic times. But despite the trials they face, Sharing Love and Angel remain true to each other and draw the strength to carry on from their beautiful companionship. Nature lovers and fans of poetry alike will delight in Hyler s whimsical celebration of understanding and loyalty in unlikely places.
