It will not be difficult, if any one so desires, to combine the data of a table for any two grades considered equivalent. For purposes of identification, the 6th and 7th grades in the 5-6-7 grouping will be followed by the letter x in all future references; the 6th and 7th grades in the 6-7-8 grouping will be followed by the letter r. These letters were derived from the words xtra and regular, which were first used to keep the records of the two types separate. Analysis Of The Sampling. The 9,819 test sets returned represented exceedingly fair sampling, as indicated by the following tables: Grand Total, by Grades. The higher grades in each group show slightly fewer replies, as expected. Grand Total, by Sciences. If the...
