SO great is the demand for a simple and practical course of Club work in Household Economics, that it seems wise to add to the present volume, two programmes which have been tested in the clubs for which they were prepared. Dr. Mary Green is a well-known physician, whose book on the Foods of the World is given in the bibliography of the present volume, and Mrs. Watson is valued authority in the National Household Economic Association. The syllabus of the course of lectures by Professor Allen, of Armour Institute, has also been used by leaders of sections for study in these directions, who have chosen the points appealing most strongly to their special needs. In addition to these, is given the prospectus and constitution of the Chicago Household Economic Society, prepared by Mrs. Stetson and myself, and compressing into small space, the...
