Reviews

A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest eBook I have read during my very own daily life and could be the best eBook for possibly.

Noted contributors like former New York Times columnist Bob Herbert, CNN Top 10 Hero Susan Burton and award-winning filmmaker Larry Adelman illustrate how McKinney Associates enlivens public relations with a conscience, amplifying the voices of those who are too rarely heard. Voice Matters describes the journey of communications strategist Gwen McKinney, launching her two-woman P.R. firm from a humble church basement to Washington, D.C.'s bustling K Street power corridor. The fledgling firm, with no start-up money and a battered IBM Selectric typewriter, grew to represent clients from Eleanor Holmes Norton, Lani Guinier, Elaine Jones and Randall Robinson to Jean-Bertrand Aristide and Nelson Mandela. The anthology offers critical insights on the public relations and communications professions, criminal justice and health equity issues and social media. The book was written to capture and memorialize the work of McKinney Associates over the past 20 years, highlighting some of the firm's remarkable clients and memorable, winning campaigns. Voice Matters is a resource for public relations, social justice and policy advocates professionals looking for ways to advance big narratives on small budgets, and for socially responsible entrepreneurs who want to pursue their passions while making a profit. McKinney Associates is a boutique firm specializing in representing nonprofit organizations dedicated to elevating the voices of those who are marginalized. McKinney is the first public relations firm owned by an African American woman in the nation's capitol that expressly promotes social advocacy. The firm specializes in social policy and social justice communications strategy and serves as a trusted advisor to many of the nation's most influential civil rights leaders.
