

Ralph Ellison: a Biography (Hardback)

By Professor Arnold Rampersad

Alfred A. Knopf, United States, 2007. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 239 x 160 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The definitive biography of one of the most important American writers and cultural intellectuals of the twentieth century Ralph Ellison, author of the masterpiece Invisible Man. In 1953, Ellisons explosive story of an innocent young black mans often surreal search for truth and his identity won him the National Book Award for fiction and catapulted him to national prominence. Ellison went on to earn many other honors, including two presidential medals and election to the American Academy of Arts and Letters, but his failure to publish a second novel, despite years of striving, haunted him for the rest of his life. Now, as the first scholar given complete access to Ellisons papers, Arnold Rampersad has written not only a reliable account of the main events of Ellisons life but also a complex, authoritative portrait of an unusual artist and human being. Born poor and soon fatherless in 1913, Ralph struggled both to belong to and to escape from the world of his childhood. We learn here about his sometimes happy, sometimes harrowing years growing up in Oklahoma City and attending Tuskegee...
