Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. There is no such thing on earth as an uninteresting subject; the only thing that can exist is an uninterested person, declared the philosopher and wit G. K. Chesterton (1874 1936). The extent and variety of the author s writings comprising journalism, history, biography, apologetics, poetry, plays, and detective fiction attest to his own diversity of enthusiasms. This rich and thought-provoking anthology draws from Chesterton s vast treasury of publications to present his most trenchant observations on education, humor, literature, religion, politics, class, and other topics. Editor Bob Blaisdell offers an insightful introduction to Chesterton s life and works and identifies the source of each quotation. Organized thematically, the quotes range from quips from Chesterton s Father Brown mysteries (The most incredible thing about miracles is that they happen.) and novels (Marriage is a duel to the death which no man of honour should decline.) to his newspaper columns (An adventure is only an inconvenience rightly considered. An inconvenience is only an adventure wrongly considered.) and essays (No man must be superior to the things that are common to men. Not only are we all in the same boat, but we are all seasick.). If you re a fan of Chesterton s writing than this quote collection will be great for you. Blaisdell s introduction is also very interesting. The kind of book that would do great on a coffee table, ready to be picked up and browsed through at random times. A Universe in Words.
