History Press (SC), United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. San Diego, known for its perfect weather, naval ties and landmarks like the San Diego Zoo and Balboa Park, has a history as incredible as its stunning shoreline. In this collection of articles from his San Diego Union-Tribune column The Way We Were, Richard W. Crawford recounts stories from the city s early history that once splashed across the headlines. Read about Ruth Alexander s aviation feats, the water pipeline carved from Humboldt County redwoods, the jailbreak of a man facing ten years in San Quentin for cow theft, a visit from escape artist Harry Houdini and the Purity League s closure of the Stingaree red-light district. These stories highlight San Diego s progress from a humble frontier port to the stylish city it is today.
