Making Men: The Formation of Elite Male Identities in England, C.1660-1900: A Sourcebook

By Mark Rothery, Henry French

Palgrave Macmillan. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Making Men: The Formation of Elite Male Identities in England, C.1660-1900: A Sourcebook, Mark Rothery, Henry French, The power and status of English male elites were not merely inherited at birth but developed through everyday interactions with family, peers and guardians. Much of these conversations were conducted through correspondence. In this fascinating Sourcebook, Mark Rothery and Henry French present a unique collection of letters which together trace this construction of gender and social identities. The Formation of Male Elite Identities in England, c.1660-1900: * reveals the lifelong process of shaping and managing manliness via a range of social agents * illustrates continuities and changes in the values associated with the landed gentry over the course of the period, and within the male lifecycle * charts the process from school and university, through to experiences of travel, courtship, marriage and work * provides a detailed Introduction to the letters, editorial guidance throughout, questions to stimulate discussion, and helpful suggestions for further reading.
